2018 Chinese Medicine Workshop
Best of Both worlds- Integrative Medicine
综合中西医工作坊
Organized by Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School
Co-Sponsored by Confucius Institute of Rutgers University

The theme of the workshop this year will be the integration of Chinese medical program into western Practice, offers the best of both worlds. There will be lectures, demos, exhibitions, and medical students exchange during the workshop.

Dr. Karen Wei-Ru Lin, M.D., M.S. is a professor of Department of Family Medicine and Community Health and the assistant dean of Global Health at RWJ Medical School. She is the assistant director of Family Medicine Residency at RWJ University Hospital. She is the only faculty who integrates acupuncture into family medicine practice.

Dr. Lin is the faculty advisor for the HIPHOP-Promise Clinic, a medical students-run weekly health clinic for underserved populations in New Brunswick, Medical Mandarin elective, Complementary and Alternative Medicine elective, Asian Pacific American Medical Student Association, International Health Interest Group and Physicians for Human Rights.

She served on the Executive Council, Admissions, Alternative Medicine, and Multicultural Education Committees in the past. She facilitated the Chinese American Medicine Initiative and Integrative Healing Program at RWJUH.

Venue: RWJ Medical School Facility &
24 College Avenue, New Brunswick, NJ 08901
Dates: July 23-27, 2018