The First CIRU Chinese Language Contest for Undergraduate Students

Come and join your fellow schoolmates, write some Chinese and have some fun!

Date: Friday, April 13, 2018
Starting time: any time between 12pm and 4pm
Duration: 1 hour
Venue: 24 College Avenue, New Brunswick

Purpose
To promote Chinese language education.

Requirements
All undergraduate students whose first language is not Mandarin are welcome to apply (except Heritage learners whose family language is Mandarin-spoken at home, or any learner who has lived in a Mandarin-speaking country continuously for over a year).

Procedure
1. Interested students should return the application form to ciru@global.rutgers.edu or 24 College Avenue by March 30, 2018.
2. CIRU will confirm your participation via email.
3. Come to the multipurpose room at 24 College Avenue at any time between 12pm and 4pm, on Friday, April 13, 2018 (Please note no student parking is available behind the building)
4. Choose one of the three given topics and write as much as you can within one hour.
5. Paper review period by the committee between April 13 and April 19, 2018.
6. CIRU will announce the contest result by April 20, 2018.

Congratulations to all who participate!